

ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 269

Introduced by Assembly Member Correa

February 16, 2001

An act to amend Section 107 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to professional and vocational licensing boards.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 269, as introduced, Correa. Professional and vocational licensing boards: appointment of executive officers.

Existing law permits professional and vocational licensing boards that are overseen by the Department of Consumer Affairs to appoint an executive officer.

This bill would require these boards to obtain the approval of the Director of Consumer Affairs before appointing an executive officer.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no. State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. Section 107 of the Business and Professions
- 2 Code is amended to read:
- 3 107. Pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 4 of Article VII of
- 4 the California Constitution, each board may appoint a person
- 5 exempt from civil service and may fix his or her salary, with the
- 6 approval of the Department of Personnel Administration pursuant
- 7 to Section 19825 of the Government Code, who shall be
- 8 designated as an executive officer unless the licensing act of the
- 9 particular board designates the person as a registrar. Each board

- 1 shall receive the approval of the director before appointing an
- 2 executive officer.
